IMPORTANT CIRCULAR TO OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS

SOUTHERN EXPRESS v141 DELAY

Due to delays in completing her last voyage 140S on account of adverse weather, commencement of repairs to Southern Express has, unfortunately, also fallen back. As a result, the ship will now be returning to service later than previously advised. Whilst we are doing everything we can to expedite completion of the required work, the ship's revised schedule is presently as follows:

Southern Express v141:

Loading at Auckland	08 April 2011
Estimated arrival Rarotonga	18 April 2011
Estimated arrival Aitutaki	20 April 2011

We apologise for any inconvenience caused by the continuing interruption to our service, due to a combination of weather conditions beyond our control, and unavoidable maintenance work. We nonetheless thank you for your patience, and your continuing support.

Yours sincerely
